

HUMAN RIGHTS WITH PROFESSOR TODD LANDMAN

ACTIVITIES YOU CAN DO AT HOME OR IN THE CLASSROOM

Explore where the items that you use in your everyday life were made, and research the working and living conditions for the people who made them. Remember to consider the whole supply chain, from the extraction of raw materials, through production of components, to delivery to you. Investigate your phone or tablet, the contents of your lunchbox or the clothes you are wearing. How easy is it to find this information as you track the item through its supply chain? Why might this be?

How would you educate others about how human rights are beneficial for us all? Create a poster in the style of a billboard or magazine advertisement to promote human rights.

TALKING POINTS

KNOWLEDGE

1. When was the Universal Declaration of Human Rights created?
2. How many people are currently enslaved around the world?

COMPREHENSION

3. Can you explain how human rights protect us all?
4. Can you summarise the types of modern slavery that occur today?

ANALYSIS

5. How is the promotion and preservation of human rights important in ending modern slavery?
6. How do you think the next generation of political scientists can help to address the global issues that Todd mentions?
7. How did Todd's experiences as a student influence his decision to work in human rights?

EVALUATION

8. Do you believe that modern slavery will be ended by 2030? Explain your answer.
9. Why is the study of human rights so inter-disciplinary?

CREATIVITY

10. Can you imagine a world entirely free from modern slavery? How might that change life for you as an individual and for the population of the world?

MORE RESOURCES

Listen to Todd's podcast on human rights and modern slavery: www.rightstrack.org

Read about the work conducted by Todd's lab group: www.nottingham.ac.uk/research/beacons-of-excellence/rights-lab/

Visit the United Nations Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights to learn about the international system for the promotion and protection of human rights: www.ohchr.org

Learn about human rights advocacy with Amnesty International: www.amnesty.org.uk

The following organisations are leading the fight to end modern slavery:

- Freedom Fund www.freedomfund.org
- Anti-Slavery International www.antislavery.org
- Free the Slaves www.freetheslaves.net

Discover Todd's magic!

Learn about The Academic Magician: www.todd-landman.com
Watch Todd perform: www.youtube.com/DrToddLandman